EXPLANATIONS OF VOTES

I voted No on SB 2016, HB 2078, "The Teachers Professional Negotiations Act" because the majority of the House refused to allow this matter to be determined by a vote of the people in the various counties.

A problem of communications and lack of teacher input does exist in some counties, but there is nothing to indicate that this problem exists in all Tennessee counties. Therefore, the people and/or the elected officials of each county or municipality should have the right to determine whether the provisions of this Act or needed for the welfare of the taxpayers and the school children.

Had the amendment to allow for local ratification been adopted, I would have voted for the bill, and I so stated on the House floor.

BILL CARTER

I voted yes on this question after many votes for and against amendments which I thought would have improved the bill. Many people have contacted me on the bill: The replies to a questionnaire were in favor of teachers having a voice but without the ability to strike. This was included in the bill. With the Senate amendments that have been added and the changes incorporated in the bill. I feel now that the bill can be a workable step forward in Education. If it fails or proves otherwise, I will move even more strenuously to repeal this Act.

BOBBY WOOD

I recognize that some school systems throughout the State of Tennessee have problems, problems of communication, problems of input and consultation, however I feel that SB 2016 will not solve problems but add to the problem.

Philosophically I am opposed to public employee unions. Governments provide the only schools, the only police protection, the only garbage collection services, and the only fire protection available to me. On the other hand in the case of unions in the private sectors, if a wage increase or fringe benefit is negotiated an employer must raise the prices on his products. I then must make a choice to buy that product or seek an alternative. In the case of public services I have no other place to obtain those services. Also the majority of the people of my district (20th) are opposed to public unions.

BO HENRY

Mr. Burnett (Fentress) moved that the remainder of the bills on today's Calendar be moved to the head of the Calendar for Thursday, February 23, 1978, which motion prevailed by the following vote:
